What are the dimensions of a mobile storage unit?

Surfaces of 10 m², 12.5 m²; and 15 m²; are therefore suitable for this option. Every mobile unit is 3.0 meters in height. The modular construction allows for different configurations, depending on the need for storage space and the available floor space. These units can be used to create garage blocks and as direct access self-storage.

Can a self-storage mobile unit be installed on a concrete floor?

Our self-storage mobile unit offers a turnkey solution. You don't need a concrete floor slab. A flat, hard surface is sufficient for the use of our portable solution. We can provide the mobile unit with leveling points so that it can be installed on uneven surfaces too. The modules can be installed in line to look like permanent installations.
