

This PDF is generated from: <https://sesona.co.za/26-10-23-6604.html>

Title: Can batteries be sold at the Slovenian site

Generated on: 2026-05-28 18:43:18

Copyright (C) 2026 Sesona Energy Solutions. All rights reserved.

For the latest updates and more information, visit our website: <https://sesona.co.za>

Are you planning to sell your products to customers in Slovenia, but you are not based in Slovenia? You need to set up an authorised representative of your company to fulfil your obligations under the EPR ...

Summary Deceleration and The Single Administrative DocumentThe Union Customs CodeEconomic Operator Registration and IdentificationU.S.-EU Customs CooperationEnvironmental and Related RegulationsBatteriesChemicalsRegistration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of ChemicalsClassification, Labelling and Packaging of Hazardous SubstancesPublic Activities Coordination Tool For ChemicalsSince July 1, 2009, all companies established outside of the European Union are required to have an Economic Operator Identification and Registration (EORI) number if they wish to lodge a customs declaration or a Summary Declaration. All U.S. companies should use the EORI number for their customs clearances, which must be formally requested from th...See more on trade.govLinkedIn#slovenia #batteriesregulation #sustainability #circulareconomy # ...Here"s an overview of the key changes: 1 Market Introduction Oversight: The Ministry for Economy, Tourism, and Sport is responsible for ensuring that all batteries introduced to the ...

The new Batteries Regulation (2020/0353), which entered into force in August 2023, will ensure that, in the future, batteries have a low carbon footprint, use minimal harmful substances, ...

Companies placing batteries on the Slovenian market for the first time must still register as battery producers. If you are not yet registered as a battery producer in Slovenia, please contact us.

Under the new EU Battery Regulation (Reg (EU) 2023/1542), Wolt Market stores are legally required to accept used portable batteries that we supply, free of charge.

If you are delivering packaging, batteries or electronic equipment to the Slovenian market, you need to comply with your Extended Producer´s Responsibility.

Can batteries be sold at the Slovenian site

SCIEX products containing integrated batteries are sold in Slovenia by distributors. The distributors act as the importer of batteries into Slovenia and have the legal responsibility to meet any batteries ...

In 2023 a new battery law will come into force in Slovenia that will affect foreign companies directly. From 2023 on foreign online sellers without a national entity and VAT No. that ...

Batteries and accumulators that have been introduced according to the previous legislations can still be sold until the stocks in Slovenia are cleared. (Source: RECIKEL, d.o.o./ 9th ...

Here's an overview of the key changes: 1 Market Introduction Oversight: The Ministry for Economy, Tourism, and Sport is responsible for ensuring that all batteries introduced to the ...

Companies that manufacture, import or acquire electrical and electronic equipment, batteries and accumulators in Slovenia are obliged to comply with the obligations from the Directives 2012/19/ EU ...

Web: <https://sesona.co.za>

